Form: Reflective workshop that would offer time for personal and group sharing.
Content: "Life can only be understood backwards; but it must be lived forward" (Soren Kierkegaard). To touch wholeness we must journey within ourselves and encounter both the self that lies beneath the superficial ego and the God in whom our existence is grounded. "The task for humans today is to mature in the ability to love and to contribute to the progress of the world, renewing it in justice and in peace" (Ben.XVI).

February 16th - 20th, 2015

Title: An Encounter with Francis and Clare: to meet these two saints and hear their message for today.

Director: Sr. Patricia M. Rumsey. Patricia Rumsey is a Poor Clare nun with an MA and a PhD in Theology from the University of Wales, Lampeter, UK. She has written and published on liturgy and early Irish monasticism and has lectured in England, Ireland and Scandinavia

Form: It would take the form of a retreat, but with time for interaction and sharing for those who wish (some may prefer to be silent - that's fine).
Content: We begin by setting Francis and Clare in their own time and place, and then explore their life experiences to discover their unique spirituality (particularly that of the San Damiano Cross) to see what we can learn from them in our own lives and what will help us in our own pilgrimage to God.

March 30th – 2nd April, 2015

Title: Hero's Journey and Religious Life

Director: Sr. Margaret Taylor and St Clare's House - Team

Form: Reflective workshop that would offer time for personal and group sharing.
Content: Traditionally heroes make Journeys to find the healing the kingdom lacks. Today, our world reflects many of the classic symptoms of the wasteland kingdom. We, on making this journey aid in restoring life, health and fecundity. (C.S Pearson). Biblical people, Francis, Ignatius, Oscar Romero, and other life stories all speak about daring to make this journey, take the risk of living, by moving out from what may seem a safe situation to new and healthier self-awareness for themselves and others.

September 11th - 13th, 2015

Title: Revisoning Religious Life for the 21st Century

Director: Fr. Diarmuid O'Murchu, a member of the Sacred Heart Missionary Order, is a social psychologist. As a workshop leader and group facilitator he has worked in Europe, USA, Canada, Australia, The Philippines, Thailand, India, Peru and in several African countries. Author of several books. He now lives in Dublin, Ireland.

Form: Seminar

Content: As we move deeper into the 21st Century, Religious will need to engage authentically with the ongoing decline of the current paradigm, and anticipate in a more discerning way what a new model will look like. All of us will need to be hospice-carers for what is dying and midwives for what the Spirit brings to birth. The implications of this double task will be explored in the Seminar.
