

Water of Life

"The Water of Life"

You came upon this earth

Like a droplet of rain

Like a fine, precious jewel

With your own luminous grain.

Then you grew and became wiser,

Extending even more,

From a creek, a brook, a lake;

To the waves on the seashore.

You are your own element,

But just one drop of the sea,

Oceans need all the particles;

To be what it's meant to be.
