

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Jan 14th 2011

To get out of the paralysis of entrenchment, you must dare to be influenced by others, try something completely new, overcome the tyranny of social opinion, and find creative ways of getting closer to Jesus. Take care with your own sense of propriety and the susceptibilities of others.

The Forge