

Commentary on the Gospel for Mon, Jan 24th 2011

One of the evil enemy's strategies is to confuse and muddle: to present evil as good and vice versa. To make the jump from dishonesty to truthfulness, one must rely on Jesus and trust in his Spirit. You're not Jesus' judge. But you can be his disciple, if you want.

The Forge