

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Jan 28th 2011

In the process of accepting and meditating the Word of God you are sowing the “smallest seed.” Anything can spoil it. But it has unimaginable power. Let it grow. What good is it having the seed of the Word if you do not plant it in your life, because you do not think it is worth it?

The Forge