

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Jan 29th 2011

Jesus commands the hurricane of fear and the waves of dread to be silent. He orders them to be quiet. Let Jesus himself, with the force of his authority, command silence in your agitation, your angers, your resentment, your curses, your complaints...Let him bring you peace.

The Forge