

Commentary on the Gospel for Sun, Feb 13th 2011

If you are not better than...” It is not a recommendation. It is an express command from Jesus. To follow him implies a drive towards improvement, an inclination towards holiness. That inclination does not seek public acknowledgement, but the authenticity of love for God and for your neighbor. Do not settle for half measures.

The Forge