

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Feb 25th 2011

Perhaps loyalty is the most difficult thing to achieve. The Bible consistently shows that a person, relying only on his own efforts, is unable to be faithful. To be faithful, God must change his heart and give him a heart of flesh. This applies to every human being, everyone who demands pure love.

The Forge