

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Apr 15th 2011

At the beginning of each year we wish one to another: Happy New year. We do not know what will the new year brings. The future is a mystery to us. After all, one thing is certain: it is in God's hands. And if so, can not bring anything to destroy us. God does not want the death of the sinner, but his conversion and life. Jesus is the Son of God and became one of us, to enrich us with his deity. We can turn away from him, but whether it will make us happy? Every day He becomes present for us in the Eucharist where He offers himself to his Father for us and nourishes us with his body and blood, not to stop on the road.

Krzysztof Stawicki, cmf