

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, May 17th 2011

At the crossroads of life there will definitely be doubts and uncertainties. My faith in Jesus: is it real? Or is it an illusion? What good is extreme rationalism, if you lose peace of mind and trust, if you no longer hear his voice in the simple things of life?

The Forge