

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, May 27th 2011

It's not just about loving in any old way, but as Jesus did. His generosity and boundless dedication make you consider yourself, not as a servant, but as a friend. Ask only one thing: let yourself be guided by his mandates and, paradoxically, they will liberate and give you life.

The Forge