

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Jun 24th 2011

Birth of St. John the Baptist.

John the Baptist, “the greatest man born of woman”, had its own discernment moment. He was able to give up a comfortable way of life and choose the path of penance. But, above all, he knew how to lower his own voice so that it would resound with the power of the Word.

The Forge