

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Jun 25th 2011

The Roman centurion's faith (a pagan, foreigner and conqueror) touches Jesus' heart. People like him will sit at table with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. What good is there in belonging to a church of ancient traditions when your own faith is weak?

The Forge