

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Jun 28th 2011

The problem is not that your boat of live (or that of the Church) seriously founders because of the storms. The problem is the lack of faith to believe that we can continue sailing if we trust in Jesus. What good is a pleasant crossing if it isn't the fruit of faith but of normal routine and comfort?

The Forge