

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Jul 30th 2011

Herod felt threatened by John the Baptist but did not want to lose his power. In life we encounter people who may be threatened by the message of Christ. We have to show them the true values of Christ and make them feel accepted by Christ and by us. Jesus wanted to alone when he heard the news of John's beheading but he nourished the people with his word. Let us follow his example.

Fr. Jim Kennedy, cmf