

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Aug 6th 2011

Today we celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. This was an extraordinary event in the life of Jesus and for the disciples who witnessed it. Jesus appeared different but they were not able to put it into words. It would become clearer when the Son of Man has risen from the dead. As we continue our journey let us listen to Jesus and keep our eyes fixed on him. Let us pray that we too may be transfigured, changed into what Christ wants us to be.

Fr. Christopher Newman, cmf