

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Sep 13th 2011

In the widowed mother of Nain, who accompanies her dead son, Jesus must have seen his own mother bidding with him at the foot of the cross. And, in a sense, raising her only son from the dead, he anticipated his own resurrection.

The Forge