

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, Sep 15th 2011

Our Lady of Sorrows.

The Mother is always next to the crosses of all her children. For that reason, it is also the Mother who guides us in our experiences in life, especially in those where we are tested, in which it is painful to make a decision in line with the Gospel.

The Forge