

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Sep 16th 2011

Amongst the Group of Jesus' followers, there were some women. Luke names them. Their presence holds up to question our way of understanding and living the ministry of women in the church. Perhaps there are several stereotypes that have to be overcome, and several possibilities that have yet to be examined. Are you walking in that direction?

The Forge