

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Sep 17th 2011

The parable of the sower always confronts us with the way in which we receive the World of God, and with the way the World bears fruit. Nothing is automatic. The sovereign Word engages in dialogue with our freedom. This is the drama, but also the beauty.

The Forge