

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Sep 20th 2011

Faith always goes beyond the merely biological. Jesus' mother is especially great for having listened to, and put into practice, the Word of God. The strongest bonds are always founded on our reception of the Word. Does this say anything about community life?

The Forge