

Commentary on the Gospel for Wed, Sep 21st 2011

When Jesus looks and calls, everything can change. The story of Matthew is a story deals really about real situations of our life. Following Jesus is worth infinitely more than benefitting from the collection of taxes. Jesus has come to call to the sinners. We are in that very group. There is hope. We can change. With him, everything is possible.

The Forge