

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Sep 23rd 2011

People at every stage of history have said many things about Jesus. Even today opinions abound. Peter puts into words the confession of the church: "You are Christ the Lord". Peter really didn't understand the true significance of the name. We will never get used to the idea of the suffering Christ.

The Forge