

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Sep 27th 2011

It is not the obstacles along the way that bothers Jesus (some Samaritans refuse to welcome him) but their steadfastness in making their way to Jerusalem. Our awareness of the goal helps us to take on board and minimize the importance of what happens to us along the way. Where are we headed to in reality?

BD