

Commentary on the Gospel for Mon, Nov 28th 2011

It's the beginning of a new journey with Jesus in this new liturgical year. The readings on this first day of Advent are invitations summed up in the responsorial psalm: "Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord." Let us start this new adventure of following the Lord's words and works with faith and joy! Are we ready to live and die with Christ?

BD