

Commentary on the Gospel for Mon, Dec 19th 2011

This last week of advent is a litany of praises to our awesome God. Our readings today tell of God's power to bring fruitfulness out of infertility. God chose barren women to bear children that would bring His will to fulfillment. God manifests his might, not just by making the impossible possible but building on them His great plan of salvation. us.

BD