

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Dec 20th 2011

God's love for humanity is such that He became like us. He chose His Son to be born through a virgin thus fulfilling the prophecy that He will always be with us. This divine insertion into human history is part of his plan to save us so much so that our human plans would fit his designs. Like Mary, let us say, let it be done to me as you have said.
