

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Dec 27th 2011

John, Apostle and Evangelist REFLECTION

Today the Church remembers John, Apostle and Evangelist. What touches most people is that he was the Beloved Disciple, not because he was favored but because he was a dear friend who knows the person of Jesus like no other person could. Christianity is not just about following Christ, it is having a personal even intimate relationship with Him. This relationship brings about faith and knowledge that goes beyond the grave.

BD