

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Mar 16th 2012

Jesus tells us that we shall love the Lord our God and love each other. We are sons and daughters of God and should treat each other as so. The Holy Spirit guides us to the Father if we allow him to enter our minds and hearts. We cannot love God without loving each other. Christ is in each one of our brothers and sisters and the way we treat them reflects how we treat Christ. Am I Christ-like in my relationship with others?
