

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Mar 17th 2012

St Patrick was sent to preach the Gospel to the Irish and many were converted. The people opened their hearts to listen to the Word of God. We have listened to Christ and, like Patrick, we have the ministry to proclaim the Good News by word and action. We need to be reconciled with family and neighbours and to let go of resentment before we can witness to God's love. With whom to I need to be reconciled.
