

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, Mar 22nd 2012

Moses intercedes for the Israelites when they offend God. He reminds od of his covenant with the people and God pardons them. We are often influenced by what people do than by what they say. Jesus, in order to show who he is, speaks of his works, John the Baptist's testimony and the Scripture that refers to him. Some people say they are Christians but don't practice what we preach. Do we?

Fr. Jim Kennedy, cmf