

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Mar 24th 2012

Many of the people loved to listen to Jesus as he spoke with authority. The Pharisees and others were not prepared to listen as it would mean changing their lives and losing their power over the people. They were not prepared to do this. To follow Christ we have to be prepared to change. Do we really listen to Christ in our lives?

Fr. Jim Kennedy, cmf