

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Mar 27th 2012

Jesus tells the Jews that they do not open themselves to the horizons of God. He is returning to his Father but they will not be there if they do not listen to him. They do not allow themselves to be born again as the values of Jesus didn't attract them. Do I imitate Jesus and have his values?

Fr. Jim Kennedy, cmf