

Commentary on the Gospel for Wed, May 16th 2012

“You cannot bear them now.” There is such a thing as the future; everything does not have to be wrapped up today. “Do not worry about tomorrow,” he said in another time (Mt 6:34). Who is capable of tomorrow? You cannot do tomorrow’s work today; you have not been given the grace to do it; that grace will not be given till tomorrow. There will be grace tomorrow for tomorrow’s grief, struggles, and pains. Today’s grace is only for today, like the manna in the desert. The best way to prepare for tomorrow is to be faithful today to the grace given for today!
