

Commentary on the Gospel for Sun, May 27th 2012

Pentecost Sunday Lection Divina

Read

- John 20:19-23: The Advocate, the Helper, will convict the world in regard to sin, and righteousness, and condemnation. He will speak the truth with authority. The disciples will experience sorrow but their sorrow will change to joy. Jesus will return to the Father but will never abandon them. As he has conquered the world, they will always have reason for joy.

Reflect

- How does the Advocate convict the world in regard to sin, righteousness, and condemnation? Does the Holy Spirit speak to you? Do you listen to the Holy Spirit?

Pray

- When you have problems, remember in your prayer the blessings you have received and thank God for them.

Act

- Talk to someone about the Holy Spirit and explain what the Holy Spirit means to you.
