

Commentary on the Gospel for Mon, May 28th 2012

The impulsive Peter never pulls back. In he comes with a rather crude question! “What is in this for us?” The ‘gospel of wealth’ folks would find his question quite normal! Yet we are in need of everything. Is it ‘selfish’ to expect God to reward us for our efforts? And what of that endless talk about “eternal reward?”

Bible Diary - CMF