

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Jun 26th 2012

There is all the difference in the world between the way your average neighbor loves you and the way Jesus loves you! There are people from whom I would run a mile if they threatened to love themselves! Many have a strong instinct for self-destruction. We love our neighbors only as well and wisely as we love ourselves, no better, no worse. But Jesus sets another standard!
