

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, Jul 5th 2012

Jesus confronted the religious world of his time, a religious world that operates with a totally different logic than his. Only God can forgive! Jesus reverted this way of thinking. He forgave. He healed. He cured. For the “lettered” people of Jesus it was blasphemy. But according to Jesus’ logic it was authentic value. We can forgive. We can heal. We can make or help one or others whole again. We can choose authenticity instead of false religiosity.
