

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Sep 25th 2012

Everyone who hears and keeps the Word of God is a relative of Jesus. Why not spell it out more fully?

If you are trying to live a Christian life you can think of yourself as the Lord's mother, aunt, uncle, younger sister, brother, cousin, next-door neighbor.... If this awareness entered your soul very deeply you could never again treat any relative of yours badly. Every human relationship would be opened up and made a vehicle for the grace of Christ.

Claretian Bible Diary