

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Nov 3rd 2012

When we invite Jesus into our life, we can be sure that he will come and also freely speak to us. And may we be ready to accept his words. It is normal for people to seek compliments and places of honor, but for us who follow Jesus, the only true praise comes from God who will invite us to sit with him for having done his will. Our place of honor is the place prepared for us by the Father. Now, with such words and a place of honor, who would want what this world has to offer?
