

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, Nov 15th 2012

Many had predicted the coming of the Lord and the end of the world, but none of their predictions had come true for we are still here. This has not discouraged would-be prophets of doom from saying that it will be the time soon, and not a few believe and follow them. Why do we have to pay attention to any of their predictions when we know and experience the coming of the Lord in our daily life? Jesus does come if only we have eyes to see and ears to listen.
