

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Nov 17th 2012

Saturday Do you think that God would tire of our prayers where we ask him for a lot things? We pray for many intentions and usually pray for the same things. But there is no cause to worry about whether God will listen to us or not. We just have to believe because what kind of a father will turn a deaf ear to his children? More than a judge, God is a loving Father.
