

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Dec 1st 2012

Jesus warns us about our vices and desires, which have a way that makes us close our eyes to the reality around us. When we lose sight of the world and others, and become engrossed with only ourselves, we become blind to the many signs that show the coming of God into our life. Do not harden your heart, but be caring and sensitive.

Sid Ching, cmf