

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Dec 7th 2012

How come two blind men were walking together? Did they not have anyone to help and guide them? Such still happens even now. We are so preoccupied with our things that we do not have time to extend a hand to those who may need our help. We are content with our Sunday faith as long as it does not inconvenience us on weekdays. As followers of Jesus, we have all been sent by the Lord to bring others to him that they too may share the vision we have received.
