Readings: Feria

First Reading: Rom 2:1-11

You, O man, are without excuse, every one of you who passes judgment.

For by the standard by which you judge another you condemn yourself, since you, the judge, do the very same things.

We know that the judgment of God or hose who do such things is true.

Do you suppose, then, you who judge those who engage in such things and yet do then yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God?

Or do you hold his piccless kindness, forbearance, and patience in low esteem, unaware that the kindness of God would lead you to repentance?

By your stubbornness and impenitent heart, you are storing up wraft for yourself for the day of wrath and revelation of the just judgment of God, who will reapy everyone according to his works, eternal life to those who seek glory, honor, and immortality through perseverance ing good works, but wraft and furry to those who selfishly disobey the truth and obey wickedness

Yes, affliction and distress will come upon everyone who does evil, Jew first and then Greek.
But there will be glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, Jew first and then Greek.

There is no partiality with God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 62:2-3, 6-7, 9

R./ Lord, you give back to everyone according to his works.

Only in God is my soul at rest; from him comes my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation, my stronghold; I shall not be disturbed at all.

R./ Lord, you give back to everyone according to his works.

Only in God be at rest, my soul, for from him comes my hope. He only is my rock and my salvation, my stronghold; I shall not be disturbed.

 $R./\,Lord,$ you give back to everyone according to his works.

Trust in him at all times, O my people! Pour out your hearts before him; God is our refuge!

R./ Lord, you give back to everyone according to his works.

Gospel Reading: Lk 11:42-46

A curse is on you for you are like tombstones of the dead which can hardly be seen; people don't notice them and make themselves unclean by stepping on them."

Then a teacher of the Law spoke up and said, "Master, when you speak like this, you insult us, too." And Jesus answered, "A curse is on you also, teachers of the Law. For you prepare unbearable burdens and load them on the people, while you yourselves don't move a finger to help them."
