

Readings: Feria

First Reading: Pro 21:1-6,10-13

Like a stream is the king's heart in the hand of the Lord;
wherever it pleases him, he directs it.

All the ways of a man may be right in his own eyes,
but it is the Lord who proves hearts.

To do what is right and just
is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.

Haughty eyes and a proud heart—
the tillage of the wicked is sin.

The plans of the diligent are sure of profit,
but all rash haste leads certainly to poverty.

Whoever makes a fortune by a lying tongue is chasing a bubble over deadly snares.

The soul of the wicked man desires evil;
his neighbor finds no pity in his eyes.

When the arrogant man is punished, the simple are the wiser;
when the wise man is instructed, he gains knowledge.

The just man appraises the house of the wicked:
there is one who brings down the wicked to ruin.

He who shuts his ear to the cry of the poor will himself also call and not be heard.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 119:1, 27, 30, 34, 35, 44

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

Blessed are they whose way is blameless,
who walk in the law of the Lord.

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

Make me understand the way of your precepts,
and I will meditate on your wondrous deeds.

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

The way of truth I have chosen;
I have set your ordinances before me.

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

Give me discernment, that I may observe your law
and keep it with all my heart.

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

Lead me in the path of your commands,
for in it I delight.

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

And I will keep your law continually,
forever and ever.

R./ Guide me, Lord, in the way of your commands.

Gospel Reading: Lk 8:19-21

Then his mother and his relatives came to him, but they could not get to him because of the crowd. Someone told him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside and wish to meet you." Then Jesus answered, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."
