First Reading: Sir 36:1,4-5a,10-17

Now will I recall God's works:
what I have seen, I will describe.
At God's word were his works brought into being;
they do his will as he has ordained for them.
As the rising sun is clear to all,
so the glory of the Lord fills all his works;
Yet even God's holy ones must fail
in recounting the wonders of the Lord, Though God has given these, his hosts, the strength to stand firm before his glory.
He plumbs the depths and penetrates the heart:
their innermost being he understands.
The Most High possesses all knowledge, and sees from of old the things that are to come:
He makes known the past and the future,
and reveals the deepest secrets.
No understanding does he lack;
no single thing escapes him.
Perennial is his almighty wisdom;
he is from all eternity one and the same,
With nothing added, nothing taken away;
no need of a counselor for him!
How beautiful are all his works!
even to the spark and fleeting vision!
The universe lives and abides forever;
to meet each need, each creature is preserved.
All of them differ, one from another,
yet none of them has he made in vain,
For each in turn, as it comes, is good;

can one ever see enough of their splendor?

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 33:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R./ By the word of the Lord the heavens were made.

Give thanks to the Lord on the harp,
with the ten-stringed lyre chant his praises.
Sing to him a new song:
pluck the strings skillfully, with shouts of gladness.

R./ By the word of the Lord the heavens were made.

For upright is the word of the Lord,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right:
of the kindness of the Lord the earth is full.

R./ By the word of the Lord the heavens were made.

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made;
by the breath of his mouth all their host.
He gathers the waters of the sea as in a flask;
in cellars he confines the deep.

R./ By the word of the Lord the heavens were made.

Let all the earth fear the Lord:
let all who dwell in the world revere him.
For he spoke, and it was made;
he commanded, and it stood forth.

R./ By the word of the Lord the heavens were made.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus,
sat by the roadside begging.
On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth,
he began to cry out and say,
"Jesus, son of David, have pity on me."
And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent.
But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me."
Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."
So they called the blind man, saying to him,
"Take courage; get up. Jesus is calling you."
He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.
Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."
Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you."
Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.
