ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, Priest

Memorial

September 23

Introduction

We commemorate today St. Vincent de Paul (1581–1660), a man with a heart. All his life, he was a friend of the poor and the suffering. To evangelize rural areas, he founded the Congregation of the Mission or Lazarists and for the benefit of the proletarian masses the Daughters of Charity, to whom he gave as their convents the streets of the city, the houses of the poor and the rooms of hospitals. He did also much for improving the education of future priests in the seminaries. The Church of France owes very much to this man of vision for its revival in the 17th century. He is the patron saint of works for the poor.

Opening Prayer

Lord our God,
in a man of vision, St. Vincent de Paul,
we see your deep concern for the poor and for the needs of the Church of his time.
Make us too, poor and free,
let us weep with those who mourn, hunger and thirst with those who seek what is right and just,
that we may understand deeply
the needs of those who are in need.

Grant us this through Christ, our Lord.

General Intercessions

- That each of the young churches may be deeply rooted in its own people as a community of faith and love that enriches the whole Church, we pray:

- That those who search and grope for faith may encounter the Lord Jesus in the witness of faith and love of our communities, we pray:

- That the universal Church, the local churches and missionary societies may proclaim Christ to the world not by power and prestige but by humble service, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

Our God and Father,
here are bread and wine,
simple food and the drink of joy.
By this gesture of offering,
we assume our responsibility for the poor.
With your Son, let us never remain indifferent to the human and spiritual misery
of our brothers and sisters in need.
Accept the poverty of our hearts and be our lasting riches.

through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

God, Father of the poor,

your Son has been here among us
and he has knocked at the doors of our hearts.
We have welcomed him,
but it was he who gave us to eat.
May we keep receiving him
and making him feel comfortable every time someone begs for help or when in need, is too timid to express where it hurts.
We ask you for this sensitivity

through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
