

Liturgy Alive of Wednesday, Octave of Easter

General Intercessions

- Risen Lord, journey with your Church when it is persecuted or struggling with hardships that threaten its unity, we pray:

- Risen Lord, journey with your communities when they are beset by strife, injustices and loss of fervor, we pray:

- Risen Lord, keep walking with us when we are confused, in doubt, or slow to understand you, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

God of light and life, we are dull of heart and slow to understand how your Son journeys with us every moment of life.
Help us to recognize his presence in these humble signs of bread and wine and let him put fire in our hearts when we hear his word and become aware of his nearness in this eucharist, in the events of life, and in the people around us.

For he is our risen Lord for ever.

Prayer after Communion

Lord our God, we have heard your Son's words that question our apathy and gloom and he has stirred our hearts.
We sat at table with him and he broke for us the bread of himself.
Send us out now to our brothers and sisters to bring them the good news that your Son is risen and alive and that now we can go with one another his journey of life and hope.
We ask you this in the name of Jesus the Lord, who lives with you and stays with us now and for ever.

Blessing

Would that we could also say with the disciples of Emmaus: Were not our hearts burning within us, when Jesus was walking with us on the road and speaking his good news to us? May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
