

Liturgy Alive of 2nd Sunday of Easter

Greeting

To the disciples gathered as a community
Jesus appeared and wished them peace.
To all of you gathered here
as the community of the Lord, we wish you Jesus' own greeting:

"Peace be with you." R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

Believing in the Risen Lord

We believe that Christ is risen and alive. What does that faith mean to us? Is Jesus so much alive to us that we can meet him personally in prayer, listening and speaking to him as a friend to a friend, heart to heart? Do we touch his wounds in those wounded in life whether in their bodies or their hearts? Do we encounter him in our own sorrows? Do we encounter him in our joys and the joys of our friends? Is he alive in our Christian community, and do we encounter him there? Let us pray to the Lord in this eucharist that he may be real and alive to each and all of us.

Penitential Act

Believing in the Risen Lord

Let us ask forgiveness from the Lord that too often we are not aware that he is with us.
(PAUSE)

Lord Jesus, you came to take away our sins
and you still bring us the peace of your forgiveness,
our Lord and our God!
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, you have brought us lasting life
and you still fill us with your life,
our Lord and our God!
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you are risen and alive
and you make us rise with you,
our Lord and our God!
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Lord, pour out on us your Spirit of peace
that takes all our sins away.
Make us alive with you and raise us up to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

Believing in the Risen Lord

Let us pray that we may truly be a community of faith and love
(PAUSE)
Lord our God, loving Father,
we have not seen your risen Son
nor placed our hands into his side, but we believe that he is our Lord.
May this faith unite us in love and make us responsible for anyone in need among us.
May we truly be a community
one in heart and soul,
believing, hoping, sharing,
breaking bread with one another in joy,
and praising you, our God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

General Intercessions

Let us entrust to Christ, our Risen Lord, his Church and the whole world with all people and their needs. Let us say: R/ Lord, let your peace be with us.

- That Christ really may be to all Christians really their Lord and their God whom they follow and trust and love, let us pray to the Lord: R/ Lord, let your peace be with us.

- That the Lord may gather around his one bread and cup all Christians now divided by both their beliefs and their prejudices; that all Christians may learn from the Lord to share with one another what they have, let us pray to the Lord: R/ Lord, let your peace be with us.

- That the Lord may bring to us and to all sinners the peace of his forgiveness and new life; that he may give to those whose task it is to be peacemakers and reconcilers the tact, understanding and patience to unify, let us pray to the Lord: R/ Lord, let your peace be with us.

- That Christ may always be found in his communities great and small, and make them one heart and one mind, let us pray to the Lord: R/ Lord, let your peace be with us.

Lord Jesus, give us eyes to see you, ears to hear you, hearts that understand and love you, for you are our Lord for ever and ever. R/ Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Our God and Father,

we ask you for food and drink
and you give us your Son.
May no one in our communities go hungry
or feel abandoned in distress, but may we learn from your Son
to be faithful companions to all who need us.
With our solace and support
may we also give them ourselves,
as Jesus did and still does for us,

he who is our Lord for ever. R/ Amen.

Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer

Every time we celebrate the eucharist we profess our faith in Jesus, our risen Lord in the acclamation after the consecration. Let us do so consciously and gladly.

Introduction to the Lord's Prayer

As a community of faith and love made one heart and one soul by the Spirit we can pray to the Father of all the prayer of Jesus our Lord : R/ Our Father...

Deliver Us

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil
and grant to us in our day
the peace and reassurance which your risen Son brought to his disciples in their hour of fear and anxiety.
In your mercy keep our faith free
from hesitation and doubt,
as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior Jesus Christ. R/ For the kingdom...

Invitation to the Sign of Peace

We try to be a community which is of one heart and soul.

Let us express this in our greeting of peace.

Invitation to Communion

St Paul says:
"The fact that there is one loaf (of bread) means that, though there are many of us,
we form a single body,
because we all have a share in this one bread."
This is the body of Christ
who comes to make us his body, his living community.

R/ Lord, I am not worthy...

Prayer after Communion

God our Father,
we have encountered your Son in faith
in this eucharistic celebration.
With him by our side,
may we be a deeply believing community
in which love and sharing are not empty words,
a community which keeps dreaming
that we can find one another and create a new future together in Jesus Christ, our risen Lord, who lives with you and with us for ever. R/ Amen.

Blessing

Our task is not easy.

We are utopians, people dreaming great dreams
of being a real community,
of building a new and better world in Christ.
These dreams will never be realized in full because we are limited, human, weak, but we can go on trying and growing.
This is the challenge of our faith.
We can do it if Christ is really alive among us.
May God bless you for this task.

the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/ Amen.

Go in the peace of Christ and be one heart and one soul. R/ Thanks be to God.
